Intestate Property - Padmavathi alias Draupadi Amma - Personal properties.

Reference:--Letter from the District Judge, South Kanara, D.No.4019, dated the 5th August 1930.

In the letters of the Principal Subordinate Judge, Mangalore, and the Collector of South Kanara forwarded with the above letter, it is stated that a sum of Rs.4,000/- is due to the deceased, Padmavathi alias Draupadi Amma, on simple mortgage bonds. The English translation of the list of mortgage bonds shows six items, namely Nos.10, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 under which the total amount due to the deceased comes to Rs.7,000/- and two items namely Nos.6 and 9 under which the amount due has not been specified. It is probably the case that bonds Nos.10, 15 and 17 merely renewed previous bonds, namely, those numbered 6, 9, 13, 14 and 16 If this is so, the total amount due to the deceased would be Rs.4,000/- as reported. The District Judge is requested to state whether the above presumption is correct. The District Judge is also requested to ascertain from the Collector and report what steps he proposes to take to recover the amounts due under the

Sir,

Escheat - Mangalore Taluk - Panjikal village -Deceased Padmavati alias Draupadi Amma - Personal property.

Your D.No.4532 dated 25-8-1930.

Item 9, in the list of mortgage bonds, referred to by Government is a bond making certain amendments in the bond dated 29-5-1906 (item 6), while bond dated 13-7-1920 (item 10) simply renewed the previous bond, viz.,item 9. Again bond item 14 in the list similarly revised item 13, in as much as the liability of one of the executants in the former bond was removed in the latter bond and the remaining mortgagor alone made liable to pay the amount on the security of his share in the property, which was subsequently partitioned. Bond (item 15) dated 11-1-27 simply renewed the ----- renewed the previous bond dated 6-12-1913 previous bond (item 14). Similarly bond (item 17) dated 15-7-1920 (item 16). The presumption of Government that bonds Nos. 10,15 and 17 merely renewed previous bonds is, therefore, correct and the amount actually due as principal in respect of all these bonds is only Rs.4000/-.

2. As regards the recovery of the amounts, I enclose a copy of the Mangalore Government Pleader's letter, Ref. No.5/30 dated 20-10-30, which will show that the only course left open is to have recourse to civil suits. I, therefore, propose to call upon the mortgagors, after the property is declared escheat, to pay up to Government the amounts due under the bonds and if they fail to comply with the demand, to file civil suits for the recovery of the amounts with interest due.

3. The records (pages 5-20) received from you are herewith returned. Please acknowledge their receipt.

our Ref.A.3-7304-28, dated 2-9-30.

The amounts under the bonds have to be recovered by -- filing suits after the properties are declared escheat. The amounts cannot be recovered except by recourse to civil suits. Government does not get right to the amounts before they are -- escheated. After escheat demand may be made by registered -- notices. If then the mortgagors fail to pay, the next step is to file suit.

Sir,

Escheat - Mangalore Taluk - Panjikal village -Deceased Padmavathi alias Draupadi Amma - Personal property valued at over Rs 50/- Disposal.

One Padmavathi alias Draupadi Amma widow of Venkatesha Kamthi, a Hindu Gowd Saraswat Brahmin governed by the Mithakshara Law of succession died intestate on 9-5-27 in Panjikal village, leaving personal property consisting of house-hold utensils of the value of about Rs 100/- and of Rs 4000/- lent on simple mortgage deeds.

A

2. Two persons, viz. Narasimha Kamthi, son of Ranga Kamthi, residing at Kutrapadi village, Puttur Taluk and Pundalika Kamthi son of Srinivasa Kamthi residing in Kuvettu village of the said Taluk who were examined in this connection stated tnat they are the reversioners of the deceased. The former also dictated a geneological list to show this relationship. But they have not produced any evidence to prove it. Pundalika Kamthi also stated that he filed a civil suit in the Mangalore Dt.Munsif's Court for the recovery of the household utensils of the deceased and that this suit stands posted to 5-1-1929 and that he intended to file a separate suit in respect of the simple mortgage amount of Rs 4000/-. As the two claimants have not satisfactorily proved their claim and as the property is otherwise liable to escheat to Government; I request you to take necessary action under clause 7 of Section 16 of the Madras Regulation of 1802.

3. If any claims to the property are advanced before you, I request you to ~~give~~ me intimation thereof to enable me to arrange to contest them, if necessary.

4. A list of the house-hold property and also a list of the registered simple mortgage deeds are enclosed for reference.

Upendra Kamthi, son of Ranga Kamthi, residing at Hosamat, Puttur Taluk } Petitioner (Claimant)

Under Section 16 clause 2 of Madras
Regulation III of 1803

Petitioner above named begs to state as follows :—

1. That one Venktesha Kamthi, son of Narayana Kamthi died in about 1902, leaving a will by which he authorised his wife Padmavathi alias Draupadi to make adoption for the continuation of his line and directing that she should look after all his properties consisting of moveables and certain mortgage amounts.

2. That the said Padmavathi alias

Draupadi ~~never~~ made any adoption but continued to enjoy the said properties till her death on 9th may 1927.

3. That after her death, the Collector of South Kanara has taken possession of all the moveables and mortgage documents for ~~Rs~~ 4000/- standing in the name of the said Padmavathi alias Draupadi.

4. That in O.S. 41/1928, on the file of this Court, an advertisement is published by this Court stating that all persons who have a right to the properties, should appear and prove before this Court their claim in respect of the same.

5. Petitioner submits that the deceased Venktesha Kamthi was a Gowda Saraswatha Brahmin, governed by Hindu Mithakshara Law and that after the ~~petitioner~~ ENR. death of his widow petitioner and his brothers, Narayana Kapnthi Ramachandra Kamthi, —

Manjunatha Kamthi and Narasimha Kamthi, are as the nearest reversioners, best entitled to claim the said properties.

6. Petitioner therefore prays that after notice to the Collector and after hearing oral and documentary evidence on behalf of the petitioner, this Court may be pleased to order the properties to be delivered over to the petitioner.

Sir,

Ref. Your letter Dis. No.1705/30 dated 14-7-1930.

With reference to your above letter, I have the honour to inform you that without the suit number it is not possible to give you the information required. In none of the suits posted to 5th January 1929 is Pundalika Kamthi, son of Srinivasa Kamthi referred to in the Collector's letter, a party. Also no suit -- of the nature stated came up for hearing on that day.

The Collector's reference is returned herewith.

The District Judge of South Kanara, Mangalore.

Sir,

Under Section 7 of the Madras Regulation III of 1802, I have the honour to submit as follows in the matter of an escheat referred to me by the Collector of South Kanara by his letter Ref on A3-7354-28 dated 14th October 1928. The escheat is in respect of the property of Padmavathi alias Draupadi Amma who is said to have died intestate at Kanjikal on 9th May 1927. The usual notice was issued by the --- court in November 1928 calling upon the claimants to appear before - this court and to prove their claim. One Upendra Kamath son of Ranga Kamath filed a petition on 13th December 1929 claiming the property as heir of Padmavathi alias Draupadi Amma. Notice of the petition was given to the Collector but when the petition came up for trial the -- petitioner's vakil stated that he did not want to press the petition. So the petition was dismissed on 20th June 1930. In his letter dated 14th October 1928 the Collector had referred to a suit said to have been filed by one Pundalika Kamath in the Mangalore Munsif's Court for the recovery of the moveable property of the deceased Padmavathi alias Draupadi Amma and that the suit was posted to 5th January 1929. Thereupon I addressed the District Munsif of Mangalore to let me know what his decision was in the suit. He wrote to me in reply to say that no such suit was filed in his court. There is therefore no claimant to the property left intestate by the late Padmavathi alias Draupadi Amma. I therefore recommend that the property may be treated as escheat property.

According to the Collector's letter the property consists of household utensils worth about Rs. 100/- and Rs. 4000/- due to the deceased simple mortgage bonds.

The following papers are sent for reference:--

1. Letter dated 14-10-1928 from the Collector of S.Kanara.
2. O.P.41/28 of this court containing a list of household property and a list of simple mortgage deeds.
3. R.I.A.1231/29 in O.P.41/28 of this court.
4. Letter D.1377 dated 15-7-1930 from the Dt.Munsif.Mangalore.
